EURYDICE

Eurydice was established jointly by the European Commission and the Member States in 1980 to exchange the information on educational national systems

Since 2014, Eurydice has been included in Erasmus+, the EU program for education, training, youth and sport

Eurydice is a renowned pan-European network that provides information and analyzes of European education systems and policies.

It provides those responsible for education systems and policies in Europe with European-level analyses and information which will assist them in their decision making

EURYDICE

- ▶ The Eurydice network primarily focuses on the way education in Europe is structured and organized at all levels. It provides a vast source of information, including
 - ▶ Detailed descriptions and overviews of national education systems
 - ▶ Comparative thematic reports devoted to specific topics of Community interest
 - ▶ Factual reports related to education, such as national education structures, school calendars, comparison of salaries and of required taught time per countries and education levels.
 - ▶ All reports are available free of charge or in print (if in stock) upon request.

Eurydice

It consists of:

- 42 national units based in 38 countries participating in the Erasmus + program (28 Member States, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Iceland, Liechtenstein, Montenegro, the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, Norway, Serbia and Turkey)
- a coordinating unit based in the EU Education, Audiovisual and Culture Executive Agency in Brussels

EURYDICE

- Reports are multilingual on-line encyclopedia that aims to present national education systems across Europe
