Jean Monnet Action – European Union Studies

Enhancing awareness of the European Union:

European citizenship and values

Role of the EU in a globalized world

Facilitating future engagement as well as people-to-people dialogue

Vector of public diplomacy in third countries, promoting EU values

“European Union studies comprises the study of Europe in its entirety, with a particular emphasis on the EU dimension, from an internal but also from a global perspective.”

Erasmus+ Virtual Exchanges

What are ‘virtual exchanges’?

Online people-to-people activities that promote intercultural dialogue and soft skills development. They make it possible for every young person to access high-quality international and cross-cultural education (both formal and non-formal) without physical mobility.

They take place in small groups and are always moderated by a trained facilitator.

They should be easily integrated into youth (non-formal education) projects or higher education courses.

Specific objectives of this call

- Encouraging intercultural dialogue with Partner Countries and increasing tolerance through online people-to-people interactions
- Promoting various types of virtual exchanges, allowing more young people to benefit from intercultural and international experience
- Enhancing critical thinking and media literacy, particularly in the use of internet and social media
- Fostering the digital and soft skills development of students, young people and youth workers
- Promoting citizenship and the common values of freedom, tolerance and nondiscrimination through education
- Strengthening the youth dimension in the relations of the EU with Partner Countries

Timetable and budget

Deadline:
22 February
2022

Budget available: 4 million EUR

Max EU grant
per project:
500.000 EUR
